New Boat Nearing Completion

Work on the Hazel B III, under the supervision of Capt. Chas. Binkley, is progressing in the Wrangell Shingle Mill yard.

In design the new boat closely resembles her predecessor, the Hazel BII, though she is much smaller, her capacity and power being in proportion. The new tunnel which distinguishes this type of river craft is faithfully copied. Spruce, fir and cedar are used in construction.

The Hazel BIII will be launched in a few days, and be ready thereafter to make weekly trips on the Stikine. She will have accommodations for passengers and her freight and mail service will equal or excel that given by the Hazel BII operated by the same managers.

The Hazel BII left on her last trip for the season to Telegraph Creek, B. C. Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. She took all freight for that point and two hundred fifty pounds of mail.

The Hazel BIII will leave Wrangell on her initial trip Tuesday July 10, and maintain a weekly schedule until the close of navigation.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leonard and Mrs. Creviston came in from Union Bay to spend the Fourth in Wrangell. Mrs. Creviston, of Seattle, has been visiting relatives at Port Walter. She expects to remain for some time in Union Bay where she will reside with Mrs. Tate, her granddaughter, and the three great-grandchildren.

Mr. E. P. Walker left here on the Humboldt Saturday for Juneau where he expected to board the Admiral Evansen route Yakutat. Mr. Walker will return to Wrangell in a few days.

The Glenora, owned by W. C. Waters took a party of young people from Wrangell to Duncan's Canal last week. Those who enjoyed the outing, of several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Waters were, Misses Blanche Coulter, Clyda Schott, Katherine Bronson and Marguerite Ulher.

There was a shooting scrape among the colored population last night. One man was shot three times, but his injuries are not serious.

Mr. Ludwig Berg and sons, Alfred and John with Chris Wedo, came in Monday from their claims situated on Aaron Creek. The party remained in town to celebrate the Fourth.

Capt. V. S. Johnson, pioneer west coast cannery man, arrived in town on the Starling on a business visit in connection with his plant at Deweyville. Mr. Johnson reports the outlook is for a favorable season.

Adj. and Mrs. Habkirk and three little sons of the Salvation Army Corps were passengers to Wrangell on the Princess Sophia. Adj. Habkirk succeeds Staff-Capt. Smith and the family and will occupy the former Smith residence.

Visit Ketchikan

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schott, and daughter, Miss Clyda, accompanied by Miss Coulter of Sacramento and Miss Margaret Ulher of Wrangell, are registered at the Stedman.—Ketchikan-Miner.

Sol LaBounty Passes Away

E. J. LaBounty received a message Monday morning announcing the death of his father, Sol LaBounty at Juneau. The message gave no particulars, but it is probable that death was caused from heart disease, to which Mr. LaBounty was subject.

Before going to Juneau two years ago Mr. LaBounty and family resided in Wrangell for four years and had a host of friends here.

Mr. LaBounty was 58 years of age, and a native of New York. After coming west he resided in Spokane and Tacoma, and later came to Wrangell. He is survived by a widow, one daughter and three sons. One son holds a municipal position in Syracuse, New York. George LaBounty is in charge of a furnishings store at Skagway, while Ed LaBounty, the youngest son is employed by C. M. Coulter of Wrangell. The daughter, Miss Olive LaBounty, is with her mother at Juneau.

Mr. LaBounty was a member of the Roman Catholic church. He was also a member of the Loyal order of Moose.

Through the efforts of Mr. Bronson international machinery was put to working and a most unusual courtesy was extended in granting Ed LaBounty the privilege of taking passage on the Princess Sophia to Juneau to attend his father's funeral.

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil O. Stricklander of New York City were guests of Mrs. F. Matheson while the Humboldt was in port Saturday evening. Mr. Stricklander is a lecturer of international note, having recently returned from a world tour during which he lectured in several foreign countries. He is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. Prof. Stricklander stated that while Wrangell has no Christain Science society it would be possible to arrange with the church for a lecture next year by some member of the board of lectureship.

Mr. A. Lemieux has just completed the work on his home, located on the Lemieux farm. The residence has been remodeled throughout and painted. The interior is finished with beaver board in harmonizing colors and the decorator has attained some fine effects. Mr. Lemieux has a fine garden as usual. The family expect to move into the new building shortly after the Fourth.

C. E. Clure, who passed through Wrangell a few weeks ago on his way outside, has sent in his resignation as cashier of Bank of Petersburg and will not return north. Mr. Clure tendered his resignation in order to accept the position of cashier of the Farmers State Bank at North Powder, eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Frederick Wishard of Pasadena, Cal., was aboard the Princess Sophia Tuesday en route to Skagway where she will spend the summer with her sister-in-law Mrs. H. M. Caskey, who visited in Wrangell in April. Mrs. Wishard recently lost her husband through an automobile accident.

Miss Grace Craig who has been a guest of Mrs. J. G. Galvin, left for the south on the Princess Alice, Friday evening. Miss Craig has spent several weeks in Wrangell and she leaves Alaska with regret. After a brief sojourn in Seattle she will return to her home in Minnesota.

Red Cross Ball

The Red Cross ball took place at the appointed time Tuesday evening at the Rink. Probably 1,500 couples were present, and those who attended declared it was the success of the year.

At the upper end of the hall ladies of the Red Cross chapter, in white and wearing the well known insignia of a crimson cross on cap and sleeve, served a buffet supper at a late hour. This portion of the hall was tastefully decorated, red and white predominating in the patriotic color scheme. Bleeding-heart and columbine were arranged on the buffet and in a corner hall inclosed with evergreen, punch was served.

Over the dancers' heads streamers of red white, and blue met in the ceiling center from which small red bells were suspended, while Japanese lanterns added color to the scene. Many beautiful gowns were in evidence. Moved by music the spectacle somewhat resembled a flower garden where lovely shades mingled.

The Native band began the program and received merited applause throughout the evening. The piano however was sufficient for many numbers, and a stringed trio of Sitka Natives rendered several fine selections.

During the evening a colored man from the cannery entertained the company with two well rendered songs. After supper had been served the remaining cakes were auctioned by Mr. J. R. Bender.

Capt. J. G. Grant and Mr. Bender took turns in acting as floor managers and announcing the dances.

There was great difficulty in persuading the crowd to yield to the sweet strains of "Home Sweet Home," but that was finally accomplished. With the arrival of the City of Seattle the music came to an end, and the dancers reluctantly departed.

One undeniable feature of the occasion was the spirit of good fellowship which prevailed everywhere. This congenial atmosphere combined with earnest effort on the part of the ladies of the Wrangell Red Cross chapter, and the real desire on the part of all present to increase the fund for the National Benefit provided the "good time" which will be long remembered in Wrangell.

Severely Burned.

Oscar Rolstad was severely burned when the Shamrock II caught fire last week. The Shamrock was lying at anchor while picking up fish at Noyes Island. Rolstad, who was the engineer, was heating the igniters with a torch when slight explosion occurred and a blaze sprang up. Aid was summoned and the fire easily extinguished.

Rolstad was hurried to Craig and placed in the hospital where he will remain until he has recovered from his injuries.

The damage to the Shamrock II was slight, the engine room being charred. However, nothing of value was destroyed.

Staff-Capt. and Mrs. Smith and family left Wrangell Sunday at 2 p.m. on the S. S. Prince George, southbound. Among the crowds of friends assembled on the wharf to bid them farewell, a feeling of regret was uppermost. Thirteen years of residence is no trifling matter, especially in the transient north, and Wrangell is sure to miss the presence of the Army people.

Captain Smith's orders direct him to Calgary, Alberta, where the family will make their new home.

Try an electric massage by J. P. Levering at Patenaude's stand.

FOURTH OF JULY IS DULY CELEBRATED

The Fourth of July celebration in Wrangell came off according to schedule regardless of wet weather.

At 10:30 in the forenoon exercises were held in the Redmen's hall. The program opened with a selection by the Native band followed by the singing of America.

"The Independence Convention" was the title of an excellent paper by Miss Lynn Worden. Following are a few paragraphs from Miss Worden's paper:

"The signers of '76 are a group that stand apart from the commonplace names of history. Not perhaps because they were better men; there are other examples of virtue in the same age; the qualities which distinguish these stalwart figures are those which dominate the career of every genius—force with intelligence, originality and integrity.

"Should we ever question the degree of heroism that lifts the names of those fifty-six above our fathers of that stormy period there are certain circumstances that cannot be put aside in estimating their service to our country. Compared with the British empire, thirteen colonies, however free and independent, were almost defenseless. There was no arms, no navy, munitions were few, food supplies scanty, funds still to be sought. Defiance to Great Britain was preposterous, war invited annihilation, and then the miracle happened!

"The Continental congress convened, a committee reported, a paper was read, alterations, proposed, the form agreed upon, a member from Massachusetts rose, there was a momentary hush, HE SIGNED!

"Generations after read the document, embraced its principles and offered, their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

"LET US SIGN."

The Declaration of Independence was read with much impressiveness by Dr. C. A. Emery.

"The Young Men for the Front," was the subject upon which Ralph McKinnon made a stirring speech. Mr. McKinnon received numerous and hearty applause.

Following are a few excerpts from Mr. McKinnon's address:

"I am not exaggerating when I say that the eruption going on today in Europe is threatening the very foundation of our liberty. Do we fully realize what that means? In other words the danger, destruction and death, which have been the lot of the young men of other nation's for the past three years is ours today. Are we to fail in our duty? I say No, and that answer is gathered from talking with men of the registration age. No matter whether our parents are Teutonic, Anglo-Saxon, Slav, Latin or Scandinavian, we will do our duty. We are all for one and one for liberty.

"This will mean sacrifice; it will mean that no matter how rosy the future may appear, no matter how many loved ones we may leave behind, it is the duty of the individual to sacrifice himself for the future masses and we must keep burning the lamps of liberty that were lighted at Lexington and Concord, which flickered during the Revolutionary war, illuminated the Colonial congress and made possible the signing of the Declaration of Independence 141 years ago today, which was electrified by the Civil war and served as an illumination to the oppressed of other nations till it won for us the title of the land of the free.

"Would not Washington, Lincoln and Grant feel like turning face down in their graves if they knew that the generation of today were slow to respond to the call for which they fought and struggled. But when the roll is called we'll be there.

"To win this war is our duty, and win it we will. General Pershing's landing in France was the click preparatory to the going off of the alarm which will arouse Kaiser William out of his dream of world power and bring him back to the reality that no matter how efficient his artillery, the liberties of the human race can not for any length of time be encroached upon by any mortal tyrant."

The recitation by Miss Peggy Pennycook was just as sweet as it could be.

The reading by Mrs. Burner was well received.

"A Creed for Patriots" written by Rev. H. P. Corser at the request of the Committee was as follows.

I believe in the United States of America, a strong United nation of free people, which by the blood and sacrifices of the men of '76 began its existence as an independent nation.

It has ordained and established a constitution where all power emanates from the consent of the governed, and which was established for promoting peace and the general welfare of its citizens. It at great cost has made liberty universal in its own domain, and subdued rebellions.

It has and is defending its citizens both at home and abroad, and on land and on sea, thus maintaining its position as an independent nation of the world. It has through wise and just leadership grown from a small state to a mighty nation extending not only from ocean to ocean, but to many distant islands of the sea. I believe in informing myself concerning the needs of my country, and in using all lawful methods to advance those principles which will enable my country to be a better servant of its people. I believe that in both peace and in war I should serve my country with my property, my intellect, and my life, and in that personal righteousness, and industry which will make that service valuable.

I believe in social service which teaches men how to live, in schools and colleges free to all, and in determined efforts to abolish poverty.

I believe in a future for my country when there shall be neither riches or poverty. I believe that my country will more and more be a leader of the world in liberty, love and Godliness.

The program closed with the singing of the Star-Spangled Banner.

The Red Cross fortune telling booth was a great success. Mrs. Warren was assisted by Mrs. Carlson in arranging the booth which was set up in the fire hall. Mrs. M. Katzenmeyer was the gypsy fortune teller dressed in beads and gaudy raiments. In the evening the booth was moved to the Rink where it was again well patronized.

Public Forums a Means of American- izing the Alien Population

By FREDERICK C. HOWE, Commissioner of Immigration at New York

I AM in heartiest sympathy with the forum idea for the Americanization of the immigrant, and I am most gratified at its being undertaken under public auspices in the public schools. That is where the Americanization process ought to begin, for the average immigrant coming to this country knows government only as a thing of oppression, taxation or imposition. I hope the public school will be used not only for this purpose, but as a free meeting place for other purposes as well. Why should not the labor unions use the public schools for their particular purposes?

Press Association.
F. C. HOWE.

The trade union is a real Americanization agency. It is an agency in which the workers meet on a democratic basis. To the average man his job is the most important thing in the world.

AND THIS IS ABOUT THE ONLY ORGANIZATION WHICH THE WORKER, BE HE AN IMMIGRANT OR NATIVE BORN, HIMSELF REALLY OWNS AND FEELS THAT HE OWNS.

Capital Punishment a Heritage of the Dark Ages

By ISADORE STERN, Member
Pennsylvania Legislature

WE have outgrown the age when law was regarded as a weapon of vengeance to be wielded by the state against violators of its laws. We have come to see that causes over which the criminal has no control frequently are at the bottom of his crime.

We know that heredity, training, environment, education, all tend to influence the life of a human being. Thus we have come to regard the law in its proper light not as a thing of vengeance, but as an institution of correction. YOU CAN NOT CORRECT BY KILLING.

The death sentence is the heritage of a dark age and should be abolished. I do not believe its abolition would increase the number of murders. On the other hand, I believe the substitution of life imprisonment would bring about more convictions of real murderers than are now obtained in our courts. Jurymen then would not hesitate to convict where the facts show guilt.

ON THE WHOLE, I DO NOT SEE A GOOD ARGUMENT FOR CAPITAL PUNISHMENT. I SEE EVERY REASON WHY IT SHOULD BE ELIMINATED.

The Northland, Capt. H. R. Bodge in command, arrived at Wrangell Friday morning with a shipment of gasoline, naphtha and distillate for the Standard Oil Co.'s Agency here. She left the same day for Ketchikan, taking a load of empty drums.

Myrtle H Is Name of Large Purse Seining Boat

Wm. H. Lewis will soon have his large purse-seining boat, the Myrtle H, ready for the season's business. She will be launched within ten days, at least such are the present expectations.

The Myrtle H. is named for Mr. Lewis' granddaughter, little Myrtle Hull. She is a fine type of sea craft, being Mr. Lewis' ideal in that line, as he created his own model, and with the aid of his sons has done all the work on the vessel.

The shop in which construction is going on was built by Mr. Lewis recently expressly for boat building. The Myrtle is the first boat to be begun in the new shop. Alaska spruce is the principal wood used; cedar is employed in finishing the cabin. A 27 h. p. Imperial is the engine selected by her owner. The vessel is to be painted white, the cabin and trimmings to be golden brown.

Mr. Lewis will fish for the Alaska Packers this summer. The Myrtle H. makes a worthy addition to the local fishing fleet as few boats of her size and capacity claim Wrangell harbor as their home.

Spends Fourth with Family

J. G. Galvin of the Bon Alaska Mining Co. arrived in town Sunday and will not return to the Groundhog Hog Basin until the end of the week.

Work is progressing slowly at the claims, due to the heavy snows which impede efforts of the miners. Inspection of the work was attended by difficulties. The tunnel is now a hundred and seventy-five feet in length, fifty feet below the surface and weather conditions permitting, progress in the next few weeks will be satisfactory.

Dick Howard burned his face severely when his rifle went off unexpectedly and both barrels exploded. The accident occurred last week at the Groundhog Basin Mine where Mr. Howard has been employed for the past few months. The burn is responding to treatment and will probably heal sufficiently to enable to permit Mr. Howard to return to the mine after the Fourth. Until then he will remain in town under medical care.

It is reported that an epidemic of ring worms has been found at Telegraph Creek. Many natives there are suffering acutely from this infectious disease and one woman who has developed the most obnoxious form is under quarantine. No cause for the appearance of this uncommon disorder has been assigned and efforts are being made to check it.

The S. S. Georgia, Captain Harry Crosby in command, called at the Sanitary Packing Co. dock Saturday. The Georgia is well known, having performed regular service on the Juneau-Sitka route for many years, carrying passengers, freight and mail. She remained in port a few hours, taking on water, and left southbound the same day.

The Willson & Sylvester Mill Co. Inc. are loading their scows with lumber intended for Dundas Bay Cannery on the northern shore of Cross Sound. This order, which is to be dispatched within the week, is the largest shipment ever made from the local mill yard. The Alaska will tow the scow loads to their destination.

The exterior of the City Hall is receiving a coat of paint between showers this week. Gray is the predominating shade chosen, and red trimmings heighten the effect. Albert Dubke and L. T. Watson are applying the brush.

Admiral Farragut Calls

The Admiral Farragut called at Wrangell southbound, Thursday, June 28. Passengers from here to Ketchikan were J. Turner and Arthur Vlier; those bound for Seattle were, W. Enberg of Toke, Peter Ohman, G. Johnson, C. A. Anderson and Charles Morris.

The Farragut brought letter mail from Petersburg and took southbound mail from Wrangell. She also picked up a few boxes of fish from local shippers.

Walker and Gray Return

Messrs. E. P. Walker, F. H. Gray and J. L. Neville arrived Friday, from Port Walter on the Minnie K., owned by J. A. Peterson. The party has been working in company with Mr. A. H. D. Klie, who left here with his assistants, Anderson, Crawford and Studdert, to give instruction in the curing of herring.

The Scotch method is used in treating the fish. According to Mr. Klie the Scotch excel in preparing the herring for the market. These ingenious people make a delicious dish from the gills, he asserts. No doubt many similar lessons in thrift would be of advantage if taught to Alaskans.

MINING APPLICATION

No. 03592
United States Land Office,
Juneau, Alaska,
April 18, 1917.
NOTICE

Notice is hereby given, that the Alaska Marble Company, a corporation, duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Maine and qualified to do and doing business as a corporation in Alaska, by William S. Bayless, its Agent and Attorney in Fact, has made application for patent to the Prince of Wales Nos. 14, 15, 18, 19 and 20 marble placer claims, Survey No. 1051, situated in the Juneau Land District, on the northerly shore of Klawack or Dry Pass, on Prince of Wales Island, about two miles from the village of Shakan, in the Ketchikan Mining District, in Tongass National Forest, Territory of Alaska, and tied to U. S. L. M. No. 5, which is a post 6 inches square, 6 feet above ground, surrounded by a mound of stone, situated on a small island in Shakan Strait, which is connected with Kosciusko Island at low water, and is referred to on U. S. C. and G. S. Charts as "Astronomical Station;" in Latitude 56° 08' 51" North, and Longitude 133° 28' 16" West, which said property is more particularly described as follows; to-wit:

PRINCE OF WALES No. 14.

Beginning at corner No. 1, on line of mean high tide of Klawack Pass, whence U. S. L. M. SALVATION ARMY OFFICER LEAVES

Friends of Staff-Captain and Mrs. Smith gave an evening in their honor at St. Philip's Gymnasium, Friday at 8:30. About sixty persons took this occasion to wish the Smiths a safe voyage and a prosperous future, all of the family being present except little Robert who was ill and not able to attend.

In behalf of those present Rev. Corser made a brief address in presenting the Captain with a beautiful album of Alaska views, and Mrs. Smith, with a handsome Indian basket. The recipients were surprised and touched though both expressed thanks in a becoming manner.

An informal program was arranged. Mrs. C. G. Burnet delighted the company with a reading and Mrs. M. O. Johnson sang unusually well. Both ladies responded with encores which were duly appreciated by the audience.

Coffee and cake were served later in the evening and many joined in a few familiar songs before the party adjourned.

Jefferson Disabled

The S. S. Jefferson arrived early Thursday morning, thirty six hours behind schedule. This delay was due to an accident resulting in a broken crank shaft. After transferring northbound mail to the Spokane at Ketchikan she proceeded to Wrangell where she discharged all freight for this port.

A committee consisting of Captains Barrington and Crosby, and M. Katzenmeyer surveyed the vessel and estimated the damage. The report being unfavorable she returned to Ketchikan under slow steam. From that point she will be towed to Seattle where she will enter dry dock. As repairs will be extensive she will not sail on the date next scheduled but will leave July 19, for Skagway.
